Estimate of the 1930 Egyptian onion crop

The 1930 commercial onion crop of Egypt will be about average, according to information received by cable from Mr. F. A. Motz, fruit specialist of the Department of Agriculture in Europe. The cultivation period is over and the state of growth is good. It is estimated that the exportable surplus will amount to about 3,500,000 bags of 112 pounds each. The 1929 exportable surplus was between 3,500,000 and 3,750,000 bags. The export movement usually begins about March 1.
